

I am absolutely appalled at Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to make their stations pre-empt nationally aired television programs to air what is essentially an unpaid for ad for the Bush campaign. If unstopped by the FCC, this action will set a frighening precedent for other mega-media corporations to subvert the public airways to push their own agenda.

I'm concerned for two reasons. First, the election is a close one. For a media outlet to twist the purpose of publically provided airways to sway voters is patently wrong. Second, these media conglomerates are a threat to free speech and the desire of the American people to receive a fair view of the world.

Please stop Sinclair from airing this show or allow it only with equal time given to an alternate view.
